PROPELLING THE NEXT IPIC CONFERENCE ON SUPPLY CHAIN

What if you could be part of the ground-breaking journey towards the future of supply chain and logistics with Georgia Tech?...

Under the auspices of the Georgia Institute of Technology, the Physical Internet Center, in association with the Supply Chain and Logistics Institute, is very proud to announce that the 10th edition of the International Physical Internet Conference will take place in "The Hostess City of the South" - Savannah, Georgia USA.

This IPIC conference brings together researchers, experts, industrialists, and institutions from all over the world to discuss the ambitious, realistic, and ground-breaking future of the supply chain. This year's edition will be held May 29 to 31, 2024 at The DeSoto Hotel and will focus on the theme:

Empowering Resilient and Sustainable Supply Chain Ecosystems

As one of the leading world-wide conferences on the disruptive future of supply chain and logistics, IPIC'24 will once again lead the way in this urgent (r)evolution of the logistics and supply chain field, with each edition offering leading scientific contributions, both theoretical and applied.
